Bienvenue! Please start looking at some research sites such as the ones suggested below to broaden your knowledge of French:

Bescherelle (Fr) has verb tense guides for reference, but also interactive dictations, a few games and some interactive grammar "quizzes"; Françaisfacile.com (Fr) has a menu of interactive grammar activities contributed by various teachers;
<http://www.languagesonline.org.uk/Hotpotatoes/frenchindex.htm> for AS resources; Bonjour de France (Fr) has a large number of interactive tasks and lesson ideas, searchable under various headings including grammar, comprehension, worksheets and games; RFI(Fr) has radio extracts in easier French for advanced learners along with interactive exercises; Euronews has TV news clips with transcripts for advanced learners; FranceTVeducation (Fr) (once including Curiosphere.tv) has archived TV broadcasts for advanced level; France 24 has archived video clips from the news. TV5 Monde(Fr) has excellent video clips with accompanying worksheets for advanced learners. The "Cités du Monde section is very good also <http://www.tv5mondeplus.com/emission/7-jours-sur-la-planete> Weekly news every Saturday with transcript to help you <http://www.tv5.org/index.php>; Choose a radio station from <http://www.listenlive.eu/france.html> ; read French www.theday.co.uk (MFL section: lots of texts on contemporary issues) also www.voici.fr www.gala.fr Fun and gossip – not very useful for AS level, but you will still use your French.
Get ready to use these (or similar) websites www.forvo.com (for help with pronunciation of words) www.verbix.com (conjugate any infinitive verb in any tense) <http://www.collinsdictionary.com/dictionary/english-french> <http://www.larousse.com/en/dictionaries/french-english>

Preparatory Tasks for AS French.

In order to prepare yourself for the transition from GCSE to AS, it is important to "keep your hand in" French. The following 3 tasks aim to stimulate your interest in the culture and society of French speaking countries and to get you to think a bit more about where French is spoken. Remember in Chapter one of GCSE we did descriptions and in Chapter 4 we did descriptions of your region, so please use the vocabulary on Active Learn and Quizlet to help you. If you have any concerns or anxieties, please do not hesitate to contact me - email is the easiest means: jburniston@stpetershuntingdon.org

Task 1: Cultural awareness:

Research one of the following in simple French (> 200 words) on

A famous French-Speaking person OR A French town or region

SUGGESTIONS:

A famous French - speaking person:

- Gerard Dépardieu (actor);
- Zinedine Zidane (manager/ex-footballer)
- Emmanuel Macron (French President);
- Or your own choice - from any French-speaking country.
- Coco Chanel (fashion designer)
- Marie Curie (scientist)
- Jo-Wilfried Tsonga (tennis player)
- Marion Cotillard (actress) ...

A French town or region - perhaps one you have visited on holiday or a school trip. Include information about location, places of interest, why you like/dislike it, interesting features.

Task 2: Grammatical awareness and revision.

There's no getting away from it: grammar plays a crucial part in language learning and in AS French. Use some of the websites mentioned earlier to revise then test yourself with these exercises:
